LARGER SCALE FIGURES CATALOGUE 2015

A growing range of figures and components created by Rob Bennett and Simon Harris. These figures feature, where possible, spherical ball joints on ankles, wrists, shoulders, and necks, to provide the maximum opportunities for posing figures to suit your particular application. Please note, all items are supplied unpainted, and will require clean up and assembly.

Winter Diesel Driver

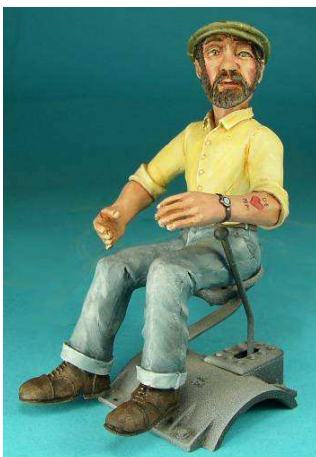

To complement our range of loco kits here is our new Winter driver, donkey jacket, woolly pully and rolled down wellies, give a very British feel.

He has sphere joints at neck wrist and shoulder and the “camp town ladies” pose will fit him on to typical shin cracking clutch pedal!

A limited edition of 50

£25.00

Summer Diesel Driver

As an alternative to the above our Summer driver in shirtsleeves and jeans is ideal for the three or four days between Spring and Autumn.

Sphere joints at the neck and shoulders will allow for variations in pose to fit a variety of locos

A limited edition of 50

£25.00

FPC1

Our first footplate crew, a limited addition of 50 sets.

Featuring our sphere joints as well as poseable joints at the waist, this set includes both of the heads shown plus a spare bearded head, fine chain for the drivers watch chain and a white metal shovel casting.

£50.00

Penrhyn Payday

This narrative vignette consists of The Secretary, The Geezer, and The Accountant, and is limited to 50 sets.

Whilst originally intended to compliment I P Engineering's Overlookers Coach Kit, the standard seating height of 31mm, will make them useful for populating a variety of vehicles.

£60.00

Quarry Hunslet Crew

This crew consisting of driver and lad, is a limited edition of 50, and has been created specifically to fit the Hunslet. The driver consists of legs/torso with a choice of two heads and two sets of arms and hands.

His partner in crime consists of torso/legs with a choice of two right and one left arm, with a separate pair of hands

SOLD OUT £45.00

Coming Home

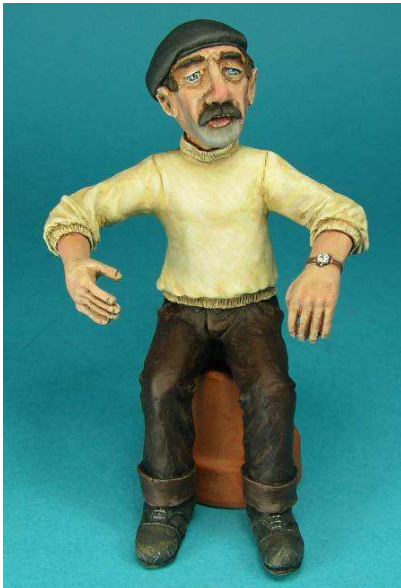

Sad Jacques

A worker returns home after hard days toil, a limited addition of 20 sets.

Featuring our sphere joints at the neck and arms, this set includes the snap sack shown.

Although designed to fit our man-rider, with a height difference of 25mm from feet to seat, this figure will work equally well in other situations with a similar seat height.

SOLD OUT £25.00

Female Loco Crew

A slightly careworn driver figure with a certain Gallic influence. Details include wristwatch, beret and a hole in the right elbow of his work jumper.

A limited edition of 25 £25.00

This set represents two sisters, you will note the family resemblance in the faces.

The younger has been press-ganged into stoking whilst the older one drives.

Both feature sphere joints where possible and both have separate hair pieces to give the maximum flexibility in the head position.

A limited edition of 50 £45.00

Summer Hunslet Driver

A new driver designed to fit the Accucraft Quarry Hunslet.

As always, sphere joints on neck and shoulders, to allow maximum range of poses, he needs the Egyptian middle Kingdom legs to be able to squeeze in around the cab plumbing!

He includes the watch chain.

A limited edition of 50

£25.00

German Loco Driver

Our German driver has been inspired by the Roloff book on Feldbahn operations.

He features our usual sphere joints at neck shoulder and wrists to allow maximum choice in posing.

This driver would be ideal to crew your upscaled Regner locos.
